The Commander and Chief is Back!

Since the middle of May, Chief Theresa Lock, Director of the Mott Community College Public Safety Department has been on a medical leave. She is now back and ready to dive right in and continue leading the Department of Public Safety with integrity, courage and strength. To ensure that the Department of Public Safety continued on the right path, in her absence, Sgt. Lloyd Nicholson served as her interim Chief. Sgt. James Malcolm was a key team player in ensuring that the department ran smoothly as well.

Chief Lock would like to thank everyone for their cards, get well wishes and their overall support of her when she needed it the most. From the Department of Public Safety: "WELCOME BACK CHIEF!"
